1. Interpretations

1.1 Unless the context otherwise admits words importing one gender shall include all other genders and words importing the singular shall include the plural and vice versa.

1.2 Reference to any statutory provisions in this Agreement shall include any statutory provisions, which amends or replaces it.

2. Outline of Agreement

2.1 This Agreement details the terms and conditions agreed between the Parties for the development of a web site, (including technical and design details), hereinafter known as the "Project" for the Client such development to be undertaken by the Developer.

3. Detailed Project Specification

3.1 The Parties have agreed a detailed Project specification as defined in Schedule One of this Agreement.

3.2 Any amendments proposed to this Project specification must be made in writing and delivered to the other party. Either party is entitled to request a meeting to discuss such amendments.

3.3 If such proposed amendments incur additional expense the Developer is entitled to seek further payment to cover such reasonable additional expense.

4. Fees

4.1 The Client will pay the agreed fees to the Developer on delivery of the Project, completed according to the Project specification detailed in Schedule One of this Agreement. The Developer will invoice the Client and the Client will pay the invoice, including Value Added Tax, (VAT) at the prevailing rate according to the terms of payment detailed on the invoice.

4.2 The Client will make a series of payments on the completion of development milestones where the Project involves considerable development time to implement. Such development milestones and the amount of payment for the completion of each milestone to be included within the Project specification as defined in Schedule One of this Agreement, or if not specified in Schedule One to be agreed in writing by the parties prior to the commencement of the Project.

5. Expenses

5.1 The Client will pay the reasonable expenses incurred by the Developer during the Project, including travel to the offices of the Client where required, the purchase of computer consumables required for the Project and such other expenses directly related to the Project.

5.2 The Developer will seek the Client's prior written approval if significant expenses not covered by clause 5.1 have to be incurred during the Project.

6. Delivery

6.1 The Developer will deliver the completed Project to the Client by way of Compact Disc, (CD) or such other data storage method as selected by the Client.

6.2 Alternatively, if the Client requires the completed Project to be loaded onto a fileserver using File Transfer Protocol (FTP) the Client agrees to pay an additional reasonable charge for this service.

6.3 After delivery the Client may request that the Developer retain a final back-up copy of the Project for safekeeping. If so requested the Developer undertakes to store the Project copy in a secure place.
