

NOTICE SEEKING POSSESSION SHORTHOLD TENANCY

This notice is the first step towards home. You should read it very care

If you need to find out about this it as quickly as possible to any of t

A Citizens Advice Bureau.
A Housing Aid Centre.
A Law Centre.
Or a Solicitor.

You may be able to get Public Fun circumstances.

1. TO: [Insert name of tenant or t

2. Your Landlord intends to apply give up possession of: [Insert full

If you have an Assured Shorthold not come to an end, your Landlord court on one of the grounds 2, 8,
Schedule 2 of the Housing Act 198
an end your Landlord cannot use t 21 Notice.

If you are willing to give up posses
you should tell the person who sig
when you can leave.

3. The Landlord intends to seek po
Housing Act, which reads:

"Any obligation of the tenancy (oth has been broken or not performed

Whichever grounds are set out in paragraph 1 or 2, other grounds to be added at a later date. You must discuss about it so you can discuss the added grounds as the grounds set out in paragraph 1 or 2.

4. Particulars of each ground are set out in paragraph 3. [Provide further details to backup each ground]

Before the court will grant an order for possession, it is reasonable to require you to leave the property. After this Notice you will be able to suggest other grounds that you should have to leave, even if you are not a tenant.

The court will only make an Order for possession if the terms of the tenancy make provision for it. You must provide a ground.

5. Court proceedings will not begin until the date shown in paragraph 4. commence proceedings, you must provide further details to backup each ground and commencing proceedings. If the date is not shown, 14 days for the notice to arrive]

Where the Landlord is seeking possession, the court cannot begin until 2 weeks after the date shown in paragraph 4.

After the date shown in paragraph 4, you must provide further details to backup each ground once but not later than 12 months after the date shown. At this time the Notice will elapse and you must provide further details to backup each ground possession can be sought.

LANDLORD:
SIGNED by the Landlord: _____

Name of the Landlord: [Insert Landlord Name]

Address of the Landlord: [Insert Landlord Address]

Landlord Telephone Number: [Insert Landlord Telephone Number if contacted]

LANDLORD AGENT:
If signed by an Agent on behalf of the Landlord, please state the name of the Agent.

Name of the Agent: [Insert Agent Name]

Address of the Agent: [Insert Agent Address]

Agent's Telephone Number: [Insert Agent Telephone Number]

This Notice is dated: [Insert date]